

TO AID DOMINICAN SISTERS.

Entertainment To-Night for Their Fund for a New Hospital.

An entertainment and reception in aid of the Dominican Sisters of the Holy Family, who are raising $250,000 for the building of a new hospital, will be given this evening at the Amsterdam Opera House. It is the plan of the Sisters, who serve the poor without compensation, to build a hospital suitable for the accommodation of at least 200 patients. The membership of a special committee which will have charge of the fund includes United States Senator O'Connell, Supreme Court Justice Dowling, Morgan J. O'Brien and Collector Mahoney. The professional talent for this evening's entertainment will be furnished by M. F. Keith, William A. Brady, the Columbia Theatre, the Fox Vaudeville Agency, Martin Lane, the General Film Company, Frank Fagarty, Thomas Gray, Harry Shaw and the West Side Y. M. C. A.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chase H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeiters and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but even yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

FRIARS' SONG HEARD 3,000 MILES AWAY AT CORNERSTONE LAYING

New York and San Francisco Exchange Greetings Over New Building.

Although the Friars laid the cornerstone of their new monastery at No. 108-110 West Forty-eighth Street today, with due pomp and ceremony, including the smashing of a bottle of champagne on it by George M. Cohan, the Abbott, it was to the monastery at No. 107 West Forty-fifth Street which the organization is to leave in about three months, that the most interesting of the events of the day occurred. There fifty telephone receivers had been installed and they ran to a wire which spanned the continent and spread again to fifty other receivers in the Administration Building of the San Francisco Exposition. And over this wire Irving Berlin sang his song, "Alexander's Rag-Time Band" while Mayor Hefke and other dignitaries of San Francisco listened. There were 500 Friars in the New York clubhouse and, at a signal, they swung into "The Friars' Song" by Victor Herbert, for the edification of the listeners 3,000 miles away. Then the San Francisco crowd connected a phonograph with the wire, which played "Then You'll Remember Me" from "The Bohemian Girl," while the Friars here took turns at the fifty receivers. After that all sorts of friendly greetings were exchanged, President McAneny of the Board of Aldermen speaking for the city to Mayor Hefke.

By the time the parade was ready to form in Forty-fifth Street there were a thousand Friars on hand, and these, preceded by a band, marched, five abreast to Broadway, each carrying an American flag, and thence to Forty-eighth Street. When the corner stone was laid Mr. McAneny spoke again, and was followed by Daniel Frohman and Father Delaney, Chaplain of the Catholic Actors' Guild, who asked the benediction.
